OLD CONFEDERATES MEET.

Considerable Business—W. A. Tison and Thos. Kennedy Delegates to Memphis Encampment.

Live Oak, Fla., March 31, 1909.
Joseph E. Finegan Camp, U. C. V., met at the court house today.

Called to order by Commander W. A. Tison. Prayer by Rev. A. Bond, Chaplain. Roll of members called. Annual dues were paid. A few new members were added to the roll. Communications from different sources were read by Adjutant Mikel.

Special Order No. 2 from headquarters Florida Division, as follows:

Jacksonville, Fla., January 20, '09.
Comrades—With feeling of the deepest pain and sorrow, I have to announce to this division the death of Major Gen. Francis P. Fleming, late your commanding general and beloved comrade. On the 20th day of December last, one month ago, he passed to rest, after months of painful illness, borne with patient Christian fortitude and resignation.

Among the many brilliant characters who have adorned the ranks of the Confederate Veterans, he ever shown prominently, whether in the councils of the corps or in the more modest yet important duties of his beloved R. E. Lee Camp, of this division, and his loss will be felt throughout the entire corps. Gentle, unassuming and retiring, yet there was no work too arduous, no labor too great for him to shrink from in his devotion to his comrades and the memory of the Confederate cause.

His advice, his assistance, his purse was ever at the call of the Confederate Veterans, in his ever so humble, for his brave heart was filled with Christian love and charity.

Conscientious in all he did and advised, he ever lived up to his principles, actuated as he was by the highest and most delicate sense of honor in all matters.

He devoted himself to the preservation of the records of the brilliant deeds of the Florida soldiers of the Confederate army in the war between the states, seeking to so arrange them historically, that future generations should know and honor the deeds of their ancestors.

This division has sustained an irreparable loss, he cannot be replaced from our sadly thinning ranks, and while our hearts are sorely, sadly stricken, let us strive to emulate his noble character by living up to the high incentives he encouraged, and so crown the few remaining years of our lives that our reward, like his, may be perfect, and that we may meet him beyond the river, where all is peace. Commanders of camps will read these orders at their first meetings and have them published in the papers of their city or neighborhood. By order,

ROBERT J. MAGILL,
Major General Commanding.
H. H. LOVE,
Adj. Gen'l and Chief of Staff.

The above memorial was listened to with attentive ears by the old veterans of Finegan Camp. Then a motion prevailed to extend our deepest sympathy to the bereaved relatives and friends of our much loved deceased commander, Major Gen. Francis P. Fleming.

A resolution from Marion Camp No. 56, of Ocala, in regard to the prompt attention and untiring efforts of Miss Jefferson Bell, Secretary of the Pension Board of Florida, was read, and by a unanimous vote of Finegan Camp the administration of the State of Florida are urgently requested to retain Miss Bell as Secretary of the Board of Pensions, as she has proven herself to be a true friend to the old Confederate soldiers, as well as competent to fill this responsible position. Resolution unanimously adopted.

A letter from Miss Jefferson Bell was read, considered and discussed. A motion prevailed, which was unanimous, that we, as a Camp of Confederate Veterans, recommend that the coming session of the legislature increase the millage of the pension law and retain on the pension roll all who served through the bloody struggle and were honorably discharged.

Moved and seconded that W. A. Tison, Commander, answer Miss Bell's letter.

Also moved and seconded that Adj. Mikel and Asst. Adj. Delegal advise with our state senator and representatives in regard to legislation on the pension law to the best interests of old soldiers and widows of soldiers.

At this juncture a letter from Miss Jefferson Bell to Comrade J. H. Jowers was read, stating that he had been dropped from the pension roll as a deserter from the Confederate army. On motion, properly seconded, this notice is given: We find no proof to the effect that Comrade J. H. Jowers ever deserted. He states that he was in Macon, Ga., when Gen. Lee surrendered.

W. A. Tison stated that it would be necessary to elect delegates to the reunion to meet in Memphis, Tenn., on June 8th, 1909. On motion, Bros. Tison and Thos. Kennedy were elected, the camp to pay expenses.

Adjourned with prayer by the Chaplain.

H. E. DELEGAL, W. A. TISON,
Assistant Adjutant. Commander.
